SPECIAL SESSION TO BE HELD IN APRIL

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY PRESIDENT AFTER LENGTHY CONFERENCE

White Dinner Is Attended By Leaders of Senate and House--Many Matters of Vital Interest Were Considered Thoroughly--Session April 4th, or One Week Later.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 7.—President Harding announced early today (Tuesday) that the special session of congress would be called not before April 4th and might be a week later.

The announcement was made after a white house dinner which Republican leaders of the senate and house attended. The conference lasted for four hours and the president said the legislative program had been discussed.

The president said this was the beginning of a program of cooperation. Various subjects were discussed, he added, in an attempt to ascertain the most important to be taken up by the next congress.

After the conference broke up and his guests had departed the president came out on the front porch of the white house to talk to the newspaper correspondents, about 50 of whom were present.

The president said: "We discussed a taxation program for the special session. We were trying to determine which was the real pressing business for congress, whether it was emergency tariff legislation or a complete revision of the tax schedules."

"We passed up the matter for further conference after there has been a canvass of the committees in charge of that legislation. It means that instead of going into a session of congress without knowing whether we are going we are trying to canvass the whole situation and arrive at a program."

Beginning of Program
This is the beginning of the program of cooperation between the president and congress. It is an early step in the fulfillment of what I believe the best policy of conducting the government, bringing the fellows together and getting them acquainted with others' views."

The president said, army and navy matters had only been discussed "very casually."

The failure of the appropriation bills had been referred to, he said. In considering what the special session would have to handle.

Ratification of the Colombian treaty was mentioned, the president said, but he indicated that there had been no decision. This treaty by which the United States would pay $25,000,000 to Colombia for the partitioning of Panama was reported out yesterday by the senate foreign relations committee.

Opposition to the re-enactment of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law as a snap measure until a new law can be enacted developed at the conference, according to some of those attending.

Chairman Fordney of the house ways and means committee was said to have laid before the conference his plans for tariff revision and the proposed re-enactment of the Payne-Aldrich law met with some competition from senators.

One member of the house said the legislative situation insofar as it affected tariff revision was "muddled" to his mind that was before the conference. He referred to differences between Senator Fordney and Representative Longworth of Ohio, a member of the ways and means committee over tariff revision, but neither these were aired at the conference was not made clear.

Chairman Fordney was said to have presented an equalization tariff plan to protect American industry, designed to place foreign goods on the American market on par with the wholesale prices of similar American goods.

President Harding said international affairs had not been discussed and some of the guests indicated specifically that the adoption of the Knox resolution to declare a state of war at an end also had entered into the discussion.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS ACTION OF MR. BURLESON

Opinion Given in Mandamus Suit of Milwaukee Leader

INJURY RESULT OF OWN CHOICE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 7.—Authority of the then Postmaster General, Albert S. Burleson to withdraw second class mail privileges from any publication which violated the espionage act thru printing articles "tending to create insubordination or disloyalty" in the military or naval forces was upheld today by the supreme court. Associate Justice Brandeis and Holmes dissented.

The court sustained the supreme court of the District of Columbia in its refusal to issue a mandamus order compelling restoration of the privileges to the Milwaukee Leader, of which Victor Berger was editor. The Leader in carrying its appeal to the supreme court was aided by the New York Call, a newspaper denied similar privileges during the war.

Injuries Result of Own Choice
"Whatever injuries the reporter suffered was the result of his own choice," declared Associate Justice Clark who in reading the majority opinion recited excerpts from articles in the newspapers in support of Mr. Burleson's action. "These articles were not designed to secure a modification or repeal of the laws then in effect, but were intended to stir up opposition to them and internal strife."

Authority to grant the classified privileges, Justice Clark held, carried with it authority to withhold them.

Associate Justice Brandeis in his dissenting opinion "of more than 2,000 words took issue with the majority upon practically every point. Justice Holmes' concurring opinion in substance in Mr. Brandeis' opinion."

It was inconceivable, Justice Brandeis said, that congress intended to confer on the postmaster general authority which amounts to practically an absolute censorship over the press and he recalls the senate's attempt to give such authority had been defeated in congress.

AMERICANS BUY TOYS AND NOVELTIES

Leipzig, Germany, March 7.—(By A. P.)—The Leipzig fair was formally opened today, with 13,000 exhibitors and 100,000 visitors, more than half of whom were buyers representing 25 countries. There were about 100 American buyers. The Americans bought chiefly toys and novelties not obtainable in the United States, such as Noah's arks, Santa Claus and various Bavarian woodwork toys and trinkets in which the peasant workers excel. The London representatives conference was the chief subject of discussion among both buyers and exhibitors, who expect its outcome to have a marked effect on the exchange rate and the sales during the fair, which will continue seven days. The fair is the largest in 800 years, it has been said.

The general lament among the exhibitors is the absence of Russians who, in former years, were among the best customers.

UNION RAILROAD HEAD CALLS ON SECRETARY DAVIS

Washington, March 7.—W. C. McMenimen, deputy president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and a member of the railway adjustment board called on Secretary of Labor Davis today. He was the first representative or organized labor to greet the new secretary.

"I am more optimistic since meeting the secretary over the prospects of close relations between the department of labor and organized labor than I was before," Mr. McMenimen said.

MANY GATHER FOR FUNERAL SERVICE OF CHAMP CLARK

Last Rites of Dead Statesman Marked by Simplicity

THOUSANDS THROG CLARK'S HOME CITY

(By The Associated Press)
BOWLING GREEN, Mo., March 7.—Champ Clark, former speaker of the house of representatives and a prominent Democrat was buried here today, on what would have been his 71st birthday had he lived. Simple services were conducted by the Rev. Robert S. Boyd of Kansas City, Mrs. Clark's nephew. A large gathering of persons was present.

The statesman was buried beside his father, John H. Clark and two of his children, Champ and Anna, who died in infancy.

There were no eulogies at the grave and the expression frequently was heard that it was a "democratic funeral" in keeping with the statesman's love of simplicity. There was no sermon, either, and the services consisted only of prayers conducted by the Rev. Boyd a Presbyterian. Others were offered by the Rev. R. C. Jarman and the Rev. George H. Hitchcock. There were references in all prayers to Clark's uprightness, honesty and force of character and the loving human qualities which so endeared him to his fellowmen.

Everything possible was done to avoid making the occasion ostentatious. The keynote of it all was that Champ Clark was there for the last time to be seen by thousands who had known him and loved him in life. In a seemingly unending line they passed his casket.

Thousands in Bowling Green.
The special train carrying United States senators and representatives may close friends of Clark, and a large delegation from St. Louis arrived at noon. Never were the streets so crowded as not even on the occasion of the wedding of Clark's daughter, Genevieve, to J. M. Thomson of New Orleans, six years ago. Mrs. Thomson, ill in Washington was unable to be here.

Before the casket at the grave the St. Louis committee went to ask Clark come to pay their respects to Mrs. Clark. Many other visitors Clark home and were shown thru it by Colonel Jo Adams a Confederate veteran who has been caretaker of the residence for more than 20 years.

He spoke with tenderness of Clark as he showed visitors thru the library, a real show place with its walls covered with original works of famous political cartoons and invitations to Mr. Clark to address political meetings.

Six United States senators, thirty national congressmen, Governor Hyde and three former governors—Francis, Major and Gardner attended the funeral. Many state legislators were also present.

The court house round was passed with floral offerings. Many of these were the same which were used at the funeral services in Washington. It was noted that among the offerings was one from "President and Mrs. Wilson" and one from "Mr. Woodrow Wilson."

President and Mrs. Harding as well as senators and representatives and men prominent in national and Missouri politics were there donors.

COSTA RICA TAKES STEPS TO COMPLY WITH U. S. DEMAND

Costa Rican Minister So Informs State Department

NO WORD RECEIVED FROM PANAMA

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 7.—Orders have been issued by the Costa Rican government for immediate withdrawal of its forces from the disputed territory beyond the Sixaola river and for no other advance by its forces on the Pacific side of the Panama-Costa Rican boundary. Dr. Octavio Beeche, Costa Rican minister here, tonight informed the state department.

The information imparted in a note handed the state department by Dr. Beeche, acting on instructions from the Costa Rican secretary of state for foreign affairs, was interpreted as meeting completely the demands of the United States as embodied in a note dispatched to the central American republics Saturday by Secretary Hughes.

No reply so far as could be learned tonight had been received by the state department from Panama to whom Secretary Hughes sent a note identical with that transmitted to Costa Rica.

The Costa Rican government pledged itself to respect the boundary line fixed between its territory and that of Panama by Chief Justice White of the United States supreme court.

BELIEVES BROTHER KILLED WHEN HE WENT TO SEE WIFE

This is What Brother Tells The Associated Press

WIFE ALSO WAS SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 7.—Belief that George Clancy, mayor of Limerick shot and killed in that city today, had been slain after he had come out of hiding to see his wife was expressed today by the dead man's brother, Egan Clancy, secretary of the Irish American Labor League of North America. He told The Associated Press that his brother had been forced to hide in the Curlew Mountains as a result of his participation in the battle of Malvern on February 22-25, in which according to Egan Clancy, George had charge of the Limerick battalion of the Irish Republican army.

Mr. Clancy was seriously wounded at the time her husband was killed, and was formerly Miss Mollie Kileeen, daughter of a prominent Irishman of Limerick. According to Egan Clancy, Mrs. Clancy was a very active nationalist and an expert shot with a rifle.

Mayor Clancy, who was 34 years old, received the degree of Bachelor of Arts at Dublin University in 1904 and in 1905 was given a masters' degree. The following year he was made professor of modern languages at the university, a position which he held for a number of years. He became active in the Irish nationalist movement in 1914, when he was placed in charge of Kilkee camp.

PUBLISHER CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL LIBEL

Sioux Falls, S. D., March 7.—A warrant charging George W. Egan, publisher of the Sioux Falls Press and former candidate for governor of South Dakota, with "criminal libel," was issued today on a complaint sworn to by L. E. Wagner, state's attorney. The warrant, according to Wagner, was based on an article in Sunday morning's edition of Mr. Egan's newspaper, in which it was charged that the state's attorney "framed" a statutory charge against the publisher. The charge was dismissed in court last week. Egan was later arrested and arraigned in the county court. He was released on $500 bond to appear March 15 for trial.

SELECT SITES FOR MILITARY BLOCK HOUSES

London, March 7.—Preparations are in progress for a chain of military block houses, to mitigate the new boundaries of the Ulster area in Ireland under the new home rule act, says a Belfast dispatch to the Evening Star today.

Sites are being selected for a number of new stations for thirty thousand troops in the six-county area. The stations will be two miles apart.

ALLIES PREPARE FOR INVASION OF GERMAN TERRITORY

Necessity for Such Action is Deplored by Lloyd George

GERMANS WILL APPEAL TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, March 7.—(By A. P.)—Negotiations over the German indemnity were broken today and action comes tomorrow with the march of French, British and Belgian forces into Germany and the occupation of a large section of Herchel manufacturing country. Even now allied troops are on the move for a into Herchel dispatch says that French troops will occupy Duesseldorf have advanced to within six miles of that city.

The allied ultimatum was foreclosed, apparently, with reluctance by the British prime minister. The French do not appear regretful, while the Germans are plainly depressed.

Two long sittings of the conference thrashed out the final break before Marshal Foch and Field Marshal Wilson wrote telegrams ordering the commanders at the front to execute orders already given them. Dr. Simons, German foreign secretary, presented an alternative plan whereby Germany agreed to pay the annuities from the first five years demanded in the Paris plan, and also the equivalent of the proposed twelve percent tax on exports, but clung to the conditions for the retention of Upper Silesia and world wide freedom of German trade.

Deplores Necessity of Action
Lloyd George said the allies deeply deplored the necessity of the decision, while Dr. Simons clung to the last to the contention that the Paris demands were impossible for Germany to fulfill. The allies regarded the German course as strategy for delay and the latest plan as one whereby the whole treaty would have to be reconsidered and debated after five years, when Germany might hold a more favorable position. Dr. Simons finally asked for further time in which to consult the German cabinet. This was denied.

The French army will furnish the bulk of the forces for the new march into Germany. Great Britain's contribution in men will be only large enough to show her solidarity with the allies, who are deeply interested in the American government's attitude.

The general feeling in England appears to be one of relief, without enthusiasm. The prime minister explained the position in the House of Commons tonight in a speech, in which there was no note of jubilation. The majority of English newspapers have taken the line that the most important point involved was that the allies should stand together.

Germany Will Appeal
London, March 7.—(By A. P.)—Germany will appeal to the league of nations against the action of the allies in imposing penalties for non-fulfillment of her reparations obligations.

Dr. Simons, in his reply to Mr. Lloyd George, said: "Germany is not a member of the league, but she has signed the pact of the league, and I therefore announce in the name of the German government an appeal to the assembly of the league of nations against the sanctions with which we are menaced."

The second of the proposed allied occupation in Germany, set to commence at daybreak Tuesday, is on the Rhine, in the heart of the great industrial region of the Ruhr Valley, with Essen, the city of Steel and Munitions, its center. The cities to be occupied are Duesseldorf, Duisburg and Ruhrort, lying along the Rhine commercial ports into which flow the vast traffic of the Ruhr region. These cities adjoin the British zone of occupation at Cologne. The American zone is at Coblenz, 75 miles farther south, and the French zone at Mayence, another 75 miles south.

The proposed occupation does not involve marching inland beyond the Rhine, except in the immediate vicinity of the occupied cities.

MICHIGAN NOW IN TIE WITH PURDUE

Champaign, Ill., March 7.—The University of Michigan, defeated the University of Illinois 28 to 26 tonight in a western conference basketball game.

The victory forced Michigan into a tie with Purdue for the conference championship. Michigan took an early lead and maintained it thru the contest. The game was hard fought and was marked by a fist fight between Rex of Michigan and Vail of Illinois.

CONDITIONS OF JAP MANDATE IN ISLAND OF YAP DISCLOSED

Provide That Japan's Citizens Shall Not be Subjected to Discriminatory Treatment in Other Mandate Countries—The United States Was Never Party to the Agreement

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 7.—Japan accepted the mandate for former German possessions in the Pacific north of the equator, including the island of Yap, with the reservation that Japanese citizens should not be subjected "to a discriminatory and disadvantageous treatment" in other mandated territories.

This was disclosed in the complete text of the mandate granted Japan by the league of nations obtained today at the state department.

The reservation stipulated by Japan was similar to one advanced by the American government in reference to Mesopotamia in its recent note to the league of nations in which exception also was taken to the declaration in the preamble of the mandate that it was conferred in accordance with an agreement between "the principal allied and associated powers."

Never Party to Agreement
The United States has maintained that it was never a party to the agreement by which Yap was conferred upon Japan and it has also insisted upon equal commercial opportunities for all nationals in the mandate territories.

Japan's contention for equal opportunities is understood to apply particularly to the mandated territories south of the equator in the Pacific awarded Australia. Besides the grant of freedom only to nationals of states members of the league of nations for the prosecution of their calling as missionaries in the mandated territory, the text of the mandate in the opinion of officials, is of particular interest to the United States in that it specifically provides that the consent of the council of the league of nations is required for any modification of its terms.

The council of the league its recent reply to the American note concerning the award of Yap to Japan stated that this was a question which would have to be settled between the principal allied and associated powers as the function of the league was only administrative.

In making the original offer of the Philippine governorship to General Wood, Mr. Harding is understood to have been moved primarily by a desire to obtain full information about the details of Philippine conditions. It is believed that General Wood himself made the suggestion that he could conduct the inquiry more effectively by retaining his rank in the army than by leaving it to accept a civil appointment as governor.

Weeks Announces Decision.
Today's decision was announced by Secretary Weeks.

It was said that the time of General Wood's departure and the length of his stay had not been fixed. He now is in command of the sixth corps area with headquarters at Chicago and the expectation is that he will begin his investigation as soon as a transfer can be arranged.

After Secretary Weeks had issued the statement, making known the president's decision, General Wood remained in conference with Mr. Harding. The general said the offer from the University of Pennsylvania to become its provost was "very tempting" but his action on the matter was "very much in the air."

Officials to Discuss WAGE ADJUSTMENT
St. Louis, Mo., March 7.—Officials of the Missouri Pacific railroad today announced they would meet representatives of their unskilled laborers here March 18, to discuss "adjustment of wages."

Decreased business makes imperative an adjustment, based on the decreased cost of living and rates of pay for similar work in other lines of industry, it was explained.

It is intended to have the new scale effective within 30 days, and about 14,000 employees will be affected, the announcement added.

SMALL PLEDGES SUPPORT TO STOP RENT PROFITEERING

Tells Mayor Thompson Will Urge Passage of Proper Laws

WOMEN'S CLUBS WILL ALSO HELP CAMPAIGN

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 7.—Governor Len Small today pledged his aid toward the solution of the rent problem as it exists in Chicago and other cities throught the state. In a letter to Mayor William H. Thompson he said:

"It upon investigation I find that your suggestion offers a practical method of correcting such evils, as it appears to me that it does. I shall urge the general assembly to amend the law so as to give the tax commission power to deal effectively with this matter."

"I shall welcome any opportunity to cooperate in every practical way toward putting a stop to the reprehensible practice of profiteering, not only in the matter of rents but also in other necessities which enter into the cost of living."

The Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs said that a delegation would be sent to Springfield to urge anti-rent profiteering legislation.

To have an automobile show on a larger and better scale than Decatur and Springfield is something of an accomplishment, but men who have visited the exhibits in all three cities testify that such is the case with Jacksonville. There are very few cities that can boast of such a vast display room and there is no outdistancing of local business men when once they are enthusiastically co-operating.

Representatives of forty cities and towns in New York state will meet in conference to decide on measures which will help reduce the number of auto thefts. This has grown to be one of the problems both of the big cities and the small towns, and it is reasonable to hope that thru some co-operative organization that the thievery menace can be reduced. Certainly the establishment of a state constabulary in Illinois would be helpful in lessening all forms of auto banditry in the down state areas.

The silence rule has just been abolished at Joliet penitentiary. To one who has not made a study of criminology this sounds like a sensible and humane change. While continued silence may result in more meditation on the wrong doing which resulted in imprisonment, at the same time in the average person it develops a certain moroseness. At any rate, results under the new rule will be watched for with interest.

Senator Cummings is asking for an investigation as to the term what's the matter with railroad operation? The roads have maintained that since the end of government control that conditions have not been satisfactory and have been growing worse. Coming from some other source, the sincerity of purpose in the investigation might be questioned, but it is different with Senator Cummings, who is not known as an advocate of government ownership, altho he has declared that unless conditions improve government ownership is certain to come to pass.

A number of co-operative stores fostered by labor organizations have failed largely because of the neglect of their sponsors. Co-operative business efforts are not as easy as the name implies. Experience is a great asset in the operation of business and it is often lacking. The local co-operative company is fortunate in having both the continued interest of those who established it, and the benefit of practical experience in its management.

The international organization of moving picture producers is said to strongly favor the elimination of picture tendencies and features which have brought about so much of well deserved criticism. If the big producers are steadfast in this attitude there will be little or no need for censorship, as the smaller producers are certain to feel the influence of those who really control the movie industry. After all, control at the source is by far the most desirable and effective.

President Jewell of the railway employees department of the federation refers to the strike of dispatchers on southern roads as a "purely local" matter, which will not have its effect on the railroad organizations in other states and localities. If all strikes were "purely local" it would be a much simpler matter to bring about their settlement.

President Harding pleased the Washington newspaper correspondents mightily last night, following the conference with department heads, congressional and senate leaders. The president, in place of the usual formalities, was waiting and told them clearly about the matters discussed and the purposes of calling for such a conference.

The frankness of the whole proceeding was quite in accord with the president's pre-election attitude and made the newspaper representatives feel quite certain that it is the intention of this administration to have the public, so far as possible, understand exactly how governmental affairs are progressing.

Miss Ruth Brown returned to Jacksonville, yesterday, after spending a few days of the week end in Springfield.

SAYS CHURCHES POWER GROWS STEADILY

Senator Cuthbertson Finds Good Reason for Feeling of Optimism.

Senator Cuthbertson of Bunker Hill, who was the forum speaker at the Congregational church Sunday night, is an optimist. He declared his belief that the church is constantly gaining in strength and becoming more of a power in shaping lives and nations. "The Church and Citizenship" was the theme of the senator and he reviewed the facts of recent years as proof of his statement that the power of the church has increased. He declared that it was largely the strength of the church that gave the impetus to prohibition.

This Illinois senator who has been active in the politics of the state for years, believes that the cure for present unrest and for the troubles of society and business can be found only in the application of the golden rule, in placing emphasis upon real religion, that kind of Christianity which seeks "to do justice, to love mercy and to walk humbly with God."

CASE TRACTOR SCHOOL SESSIONS ARE BEGUN

Three Days' Event at Strawn Garage Offers Opportunity for Tractor Knowledge.

Lloyd Miller, of Peoria, territory instructor for the Case tractor, is in the city conducting a tractor school at the C. M. Strawn garage, on West Court street. A. B. Giberson, who is general manager in this territory, is also here. The school began the three days' session with a goodly attendance, altho muddy roads kept a number away. Today farmers men are expected from Winchester and there will be representatives from Franklin, Waverly and other nearby towns.

Persons interested in tractors, whether the Case or some other make are invited to attend, as the principles demonstrated will be of value to them in the use of tractors. Diagrams and a step-by-step plan are used to supplement the addresses Mr. Miller gives. As indicated, the school sessions are to last thru Tuesday and Wednesday.

POULTRY MEN TO ASK LARGER APPROPRIATION

D. T. Heimlich, who has so long been associated with the poultry industry, left last night for Springfield and will be one of a group of men to appear before the senate and house appropriations committee to present reasons why a greater amount should be allowed for poultry extension and educational work. A fund for this purpose is provided for the state poultry breeders' association but in the view of the officers and other leaders of the organization, the amount is not sufficient for the accomplishment of all the desired work. C. T. Scott of Peoria, president of the organization; A. D. Smith, Quincy, secretary, together with Mr. Heimlich, P. S. Tarbill, O. L. McCord and J. A. Leland, comprising the executive board of the association, will appear before the legislators.

LOCAL AUTO SHOW BETTER THAN THAT AT DECATUR

Joel W. Hubble was one of the most enthusiastic visitors at the auto show yesterday. This enthusiasm is due partly to the fact that Mr. Hubble recently attended the show given in Decatur and is able to testify that it was not more than half as big as the Jacksonville show and arranged on much less generous lines. Every person who visited the Auto Ina yesterday to attend the exhibit was enthusiastic about it for they found it bigger and better than they had anticipated, ample proof being afforded that when Jacksonville Jacksonville merchants unite on any program they make it move with success and enthusiasm.

IS GIVEN PROMOTION.

John S. Johnson, who is in the employ of the Collier Publishing Co., has just been transferred to the Detroit office of the company and will hold the important position of credit manager.

SCHOOL BOARD HELD REGULAR MEETING

Estimates for High School Contractors Approved — To Receive Bids on Furniture — Supt. Perrin Made Report on Atlantic City Conference.

A regular meeting of the board of education was held Monday night. President Lippincott was present, as were members Fiedler, Metcalf, Dunlap, Black and Caldwell. Supt. Perrin made a brief report of the recent educational conference at Atlantic City. The high school building committee was authorized to receive bids on certain fixtures for the new building and to take out any additional insurance needed.

Secy. Fiedler read the minutes of the last meeting and certain bills properly approved were ordered paid. Certified statements showed the February installment of $3,012.42 due the Gauss estate and the March installment of $2,562.50 on contract. Certificate of English Bros., general contractors, calls for the payment of $15,352.05. The report of John C. Horning, expert on heating, was received and approved. The question of some construction work said to be not fully in accordance with the specifications was referred to the special high school committee with instructions to confer with the architect at an early date. This committee thru the chairman, Dr. Black, called attention to the need for early steps looking toward the furnishing of the building. The committee was instructed to receive bids thru the architect for furniture which is to be attached to walls or floor and thru the superintendent of furniture and certain furnishings which will not be attached.

Some of the general facts shown in the monthly report of the superintendent were as follows:

Statistical Report.
Enrollment — Yearly, 2,269; Monthly, 2,150; Daily, 1,900;

Attendance Report — Number cases reported for absence, 18; Truancy, 4; Visits to Parents, 13; Visits to schools, 2.
Supt. Perrin made a brief report of the Atlantic City conference as follows:

Superintendents' Convention. President and Members of the Board of Education: I am sure you will be interested in a very brief report which will state the outstanding features of the Department of Superintendents of the National Educational Association, which met at Atlantic City, and to which I was sent as a delegate.

In the first place you will be interested to know that almost all city, county and state superintendents were present. It is interesting to notice that practically every city superintendent within a radius of two hundred miles of Jacksonville was in attendance, and that many of the county superintendents were also there. Boards of education are recognizing the immense significance of the meeting of the Department of Superintendents to such an extent as to send not only the superintendent, but often members of the board of education, in order that the national viewpoints and policies may be thoroughly comprehended. It is useless to try to enumerate the great addresses and discussions, but there are certain points that stand out very strongly in the general discussions, papers and debates.

First, there is an increasing emphasis on seeing that modern school buildings are fire proof, sanitary, and on having facilities for proper heating, lighting and ventilating.

Second, there is an apparent general consensus of opinion that elementary school buildings should be built with rooms to accommodate classes of not more than thirty-five pupils, with the best teaching emphasis on class rooms of thirty for the grades while the Junior and Senior High School classes are on the basis of twenty-five. (This is not far from the basis which is utilized in our own city schools though some of our rooms and classes are slightly too large.)

Third, there is the matter of better trained teachers in the schools. A two year minimum requirement for professional training beyond a four year high school is recommended for all beginning teachers.

Responsibility for Health. A fourth point, which received great emphasis from a number of angles has to do with the health of the juvenile population. It is felt that the public schools must accept in even a larger way than heretofore a responsibility for health improvement thru nurse and medical inspection, clinic, special health schools, etc. The fact that parents are sometimes not willing to incur the expense of properly removing difficulties that later will handicap their children is felt to be a weak argument for the continuance of a policy which allows the boys and girls of this generation to grow to manhood and womanhood with chronic ailments which might easily have been eliminated thru proper attention during the formative years of the child's early school life.

A fifth point was that of making use of the present day standard test for diagnostic purposes and then to follow these with corrective measures which shall be administered either thru class or thru individual instruction, as the case may demand. This was forcibly presented by Director Judd, of the School of Education, University of Chicago, who received applause after applause for the practical and yet extremely scientific attitude which he presented.

In addition to these topics, matters of continuation schools, the amount and character of schooling which should be had at public expense as well as the great question of public finance of public schools, came in for due share of the discussions.

I had a very exceptional opportunity of examining exhibits of modern school furniture. I felt this was of great value, inasmuch as we are soon to equip our new high school building. The educational exhibits were large and well demonstrated. Prices were reduced from what they were a year or two ago, but still are fairly high.

I should not forget to report the opportunity of conferences on the special train, which took the Illinois superintendents from Chicago to Atlantic City and made the return trip, where school superintendents, county superintendents, as well as college and state officers, met in discussions on various subjects on present day problems.

I cannot conclude this brief report without expressing the pleasure which came to all of us as the train was relayed at Washington thereby giving us time to witness the inauguration of President Harding. The day was a wonderfully clear one, and while the great educational opportunities of my own life.

Respectfully submitted,
H. A. Perrin, Supt.

LIFE LONG RESIDENT OF WHITE HALL DIES

Mrs. Rachel Ballard Passed Away Sunday Afternoon After a Long Illness — Other White Hall News.

White Hall, March 7.—The death of Mrs. Rachel Ballard, a life-long resident of this community, occurred at 2 p. m. Sunday at her home on Centennial avenue. She had been in poor health all winter, and her only sister, Mrs. Melissa Howard, has been here from Iowa since last fall. Her maiden name was Teeple, and she was 75 years of age. James Teeple of Roodhouse, is a brother, and there are two other brothers, William and Charles Teeple of Kansas City. She and John Ballard were married about fifty years ago, and their only child died in infancy. They had an adopted son, Clarence Painter, and he was the only companion of the lady following the death of her husband sixteen years ago. About six years ago young Painter met a tragic death while at work in wires at West Bridgeport street, by coming into contact with a high voltage circuit while stringing cable wire. Mrs. Ballard was not a member of any organization, but she was a grand character, very intelligent and with deep religious instincts. Funeral services will be held at home at 2 p. m. Tuesday, conducted by Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick, of the M. E. church, and the burial will be in the White Hall cemetery.

Dr. Ed Higbee was up from St. Louis Sunday to call on his grand mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Higbee, who is miraculously creeping along to an attainment of her 98th birthday anniversary on the 20th inst.

The Champ Clark funeral train of twelve cars passed White Hall at 10 o'clock this morning, and many citizens were congregated about the C. & A. station to witness its passage. A silent tribute to the great man of democracy. The train reached Bowling Green, Mo., at noon, having left St. Louis at 8 a. m., and had a clean and successful run over the C. & A. line, drawn by one of the crack passenger engines of the Alton, the 651.

Mrs. Seth N. Griswold is still in a suffering condition at her home on North Main street growing out of a fall recently that resulted in a fractured hip.

Another old person of this vicinity is William J. Wilkinson, who came from Kentucky when he was two years of age, and he has just turned his ninety-sixth birthday anniversary. He resides in the neighborhood of Patterson, northwest of White Hall. Last fall he spent a few weeks in a hospital that has left considerable of a mark on his appearance, considering the remarkably active condition in which he celebrated his previous birth anniversary on February 25th, 1920. Physically he is in splendid condition for his years, but his faculties have shown impairment during the past year. Housed in a special building on his farm is a collection of Indian relics that is one of the most remarkable of its kind in this state, and one idea of the promoters of a community memorial building at White Hall is to provide the best kind of facilities that might serve as an inducement for some sort of an arrangement whereby the Wilkinson collection might eventually come into the possession of White Hall. A. T. Clark, of White Hall, is now spending his entire time in caring for the aged pioneer.

Douglas Turley was a Monday visitor from Concord.

HAD TERRIBLE COUGH IN BED 3 YEARS

In 3 weeks she was out on the streets again, feeling fine.

"In 1916, I had la grippe, followed by pneumonia which left me with a severe cough. I coughed constantly from morning till night and then would wake up in the night and cough and choke. I lost flesh and my appetite was very poor. I doctored with a specialist for over a year, and had several other doctors, but got worse instead of better. Last winter I was bed-ridden, had chills and fever and got so weak I could not sit up in bed 5 minutes without fainting.

"In February, 1919, I started on Milks Emulsion. I was then in bed but in 3 weeks, I was able to be up and on the streets. Just think of it. For 3 years I have been a physical wreck, in bed most of the time, and Milks Emulsion has brought me out in wonderful shape. My friends all tell me how well I'm looking, for they didn't expect me to be living today."

Miss M. Russell, 1003 Opelousas St., Algiers, La.

CARL WANDERER TO BE TRIED AGAIN

CHICAGO, March 7.—Carl Wanderer was placed on trial for his life the second time today in connection with the death of his wife and a "ragged stranger" whom he is charged with having hired to stage a "fake holdup." Wanderer has been sentenced to serve 25 years for killing his wife. Not satisfied with this punishment, state prosecutors ordered the second trial this time for killing the "ragged stranger," with the announced intention of demanding the death penalty.

Mrs. Eugenia Johnson, Wanderer's mother in law, repeated the story she told at the first trial of how her daughter and the "stranger" were killed at her home and of Wanderer's story that he had shot the stranger, after the latter had shot his wife.

PRESIDENT HARDING TELLS HIS HOBBY

Washington, March 7.—In a short talk this evening at the National Press Club's "Hobby Night" entertainment, President Harding declared his favorite hobby was to help the fellow who is down and out.

If there is a human touch that weakens disappointment in hope, he said, "that is the finest hobby. If in my new responsibility I can in understanding and sympathy and in stern devotion to country find the touch that transforms the disappointments of yesterday into the fruition of tomorrow, then I shall have practiced the dearest hobby to me."

Mr. Harding's speech was made from his theater box in acknowledgment for the entertainment at which he and Mrs. Harding were the guests.

CROSS EXAMINATION SLOWS UP TRIAL OF MATEWAN RESIDENTS

Bank Clerk Says Signature on Warrant Was Bogus

SAW FELTS DRAW GUN AND SHOOT AT MAYOR

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., March 7.—Proceedings in the Matewan battle trial slackened considerably today due to lengthy cross-examination of witnesses.
"Dutch" Roehrer, a miner, told the jury that while he had taken no part in the battle between Baldwin-Felts detectives and residents in which ten men were killed he was shot twice by a detective.
Dan Chambers, a bank clerk formerly of Matewan, testified that the warrant presented as the original A. C. Felts had for the arrest of Sid Hatfield was a forgery. He said the signature on the warrant "R. R. Stafford," a squire, was forged. He said he was familiar with the squire's signature because it often passed thru his hands at the bank. On cross-examination S. B. Avis, of counsel for the state asked, "I will ask you if you did not assist in preparing that paper I handed to you (the warrant) and if you didn't help get it up and write it?"
"No sir, I didn't have anything to do with it," the witness replied.

Sharp Legal Tilt
When counsel for the state asked Chambers to write Stafford's signature as he remembered it the defense objected. The witness, however, wrote the name but cross-examination was stopped until further specimens of Chambers' handwriting could be obtained.

The first two shots fired in the battle came from a pistol in the hand of A. C. Felts, N. H. Atwood, a former defendant in the present case testified. He told the jury that while Felts and Mayor Testerman were discussing the warrant for Hatfield, Felts nodded to his men who were nearby then fired at Testerman and turned and fired into the door of a hardware store. Both Felts and Testerman were killed in the fight. Dan Chambers said he was in the store while Felts and Testerman were standing just outside talking about the warrant. Testerman said the warrant was bogus, Chambers told the jury and Felts "jerked a gun from his right hip and fired at the mayor." There was another shot from outside of the store, he added, and then Sid Hatfield standing in the doorway on the inside pulled his pistol.

FRENCH SATISFIED WITH ALLIES' MOVE

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, March 7.—(By The A. P.)—The decision of the London conference to impose the stated penalties on Germany was received with deep satisfaction in French official circles, where it always has been contended that sooner or later France would have to be restored in order to bring Germany to a proper appreciation of her position as a vanquished foe.

Belief was expressed by officials that the allies will have a better chance for collecting the indemnity from Germany with armies well within German territory than they would have thru long drawn out negotiations.

In official circles the action taken today in London was regarded as a complete vindication of the French point of view.

JUDGE LANDIS MAKES IMPORTANT DECISION

Establishes What Probably Will Be Precedent in Purchase of Players—Decision Adverse to Little Rock Club.

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 7.—Judge K. M. Landis, national baseball arbiter, in a decision today adverse to the Southern League Little Rock club and upholding the Washington Americans, established two principles upon which future player exchange contracts will be adjudicated.

They are:
"When a club purchases a player and the player fails to satisfy the purchaser because of illness incident to the player's inability to acclimate himself, the purchaser must house the ill player, unless the contract specifically provides the contrary.

"Rules prescribing that purchase agreements be on standard forms and filled within a certain period are intended only for protection of innocent third parties, and do not contract to evade its obligations thereunder."

The decision requires that the Little Rock team re-establish in its line-up Leon Carlson and Jack Calvo, pitcher and outfielder, respectively, and that it is in accordance with its agreement with the Washington team to send its outfielder, Miller, and catcher, Brotemmel, to Washington for the coming season.

The Washington club last year sent Carlson and Calvo south. Carlson soon afterward became incapacitated, owing to the hot Southern weather, and the pair were sent back to Washington, where they were dismissed.

Little Rock traded them to the Pittsburgh team.

The judge held that the Little Rock team must accept responsibility for its failure to acclimate and must harbor him. Accordingly the Pittsburgh team is ordered to release the pair and the Little Rock club must return to Pittsburgh the money paid for them. Miller and Brotemmel will remain on the Washington club staff.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any drugstore, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract known the world over for its healing effect on membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for 2½ ounces of Pinex with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., St. Wayne, Ind.

ers in the senate and house proved a lengthy one. The dinner began at 8 o'clock and three hours later the president and guests still were discussing the legislative program for the coming extra session of congress and other subjects.

A score of senators and representatives, including chairmen of committees expected to have most to do in the session were in the group invited. It was understood the principal subjects discussed were the tariff and taxation program, the question of a peace resolution, disarmament and the date for which the session should be called.

Tomorrow the president is expected to discuss most of these problems with his cabinet at its first meeting.

He said he would be present having decided he should not let precedent outweigh the urgent request of the president.

Also the legislative policies of the administration are expected to have a large part in the first round table discussion of the Harding cabinet, the situation with respect to Panama and Costa Rica and many subjects of preliminary organization in the various departments also will come in for consideration.

Underwood Urges Delay

Considering a busy day which included talks with many callers Mr. Harding gathered much advice regarding the special session which he passed along to his conferees at the dinner. One of those with whom he discussed the subject this morning was Senator Underwood of Alabama. Democratic senate leader, who is understood to have urged that date of the session be delayed for a month at least in order to permit senators to get home and attend to personal business.

At the dinner places of precedence were occupied by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican senate leader and Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican leader of the house. Among those invited were Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, chairman of the senate finance committee, and Representative Fordney of Michigan, chairman of the ways and means committee.

To speak regarding the plan for passage of a peace resolution the president invited Senator Lodge, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. Representative Porter of Pennsylvania, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs and Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, author of such a resolution which the president is understood to have endorsed in substance.

Senator Johnson of California, former Progressive party leader, was also present.

Other guests, chosen by Mr. Harding for his first formal executive conference, included Senators Curtis of Kansas and Cummings of Iowa, and Representatives Mann of Illinois, Kelly of Michigan and Anthony of Kansas.

"LOOKING BACK" A SOLDIER'S STORY OF THE GREAT WAR

Rough hewn, front line army experiences are vividly pictured in a new book, "Looking Back," which has just made its appearance on the local book market. Earl B. Searcy, a 78th division infantry veteran of the late war, now a member of the General Assembly from this district, is the author.

The book is unique in its composition. It is written from a diary which the author kept during his service in France, and tho it contains nothing of prejudicial nature, yet it tells a lot of forceful truths about the enlisted men's end of the big game as it was actually played.

In view of the local connections, Mr. Searcy's work promises to create an unusual interest. Even before the work was off the press, a large number of advance orders for copies was received. The edition of "Looking Back" is exceedingly limited, as it is not the author's plan to launch this work generally.

"Looking Back" is retelling at $2.50 per volume, and can be had, postpaid, by mail direct from the author, 1330 Lowell Avenue, Springfield, or can be purchased for the same price at Lane's book store here. It is the author's desire to fill such mail orders as may come from persons who cannot conveniently call at the dealer's, so long as the edition lasts.

Mr. Searcy, for years, was an active newspaperman, and has done some magazine writing. So far as books go, he labels this effort as his "first offense." Until late summer of 1920, the author was state adjutant of the American Legion of Illinois. He resigned to run for the Illinois General Assembly, of which he is now a member from the 45th senatorial district.

50,000 AT CLINICS TO GET TREATMENTS

Springfield, Ill., Mar. 7.—Physical examination of men called for military duty in the recent world war disclosed the fact that social diseases must be controlled if America was to have an efficient army. The Illinois Department of Public Health early recognized the necessity for prompt action. Nineteen social disease clinics have been established and provided with equipment by the State Department of Public Health, acting through the Division of Social Hygiene, which co-operates with the United States Public Health Service in the matter of controlling social diseases.

The report of the Division of Social Hygiene for the latter half of the year 1920, shows the following results:

Number of visits to clinics for treatment, examination and advice, 51,475.

Number of cases of social diseases reported to physicians and hospitals, 18,190.

Number of laboratory examinations made for patients, 13,216.

Number of pamphlets distributed, 182,242; number distributed in response to specific requests, 99,461.

Number of visits by representatives of the Department of Health to cities of 10,000 or over, 132; to rural communities, 175.

Number of sources of infection investigated by Division of Social Hygiene, 630.

Lectures were delivered by speakers furnished by the Division of Social Hygiene before 139 audiences with a total attendance of 23,671, and slide and film showings were made without talks to forty-five audiences with a total attendance of 94,800.

The industries of the state are greatly interested in this campaign and in several cities have contributed liberally towards the support of the clinics on the theory that the influences which rendered men unfit for military duty is likewise unfitting them for industrial pursuits. Many of the lectures and film showings were to audiences composed entirely of employees of large industrial plants.

AUTO EXPOSITION OPENED YESTERDAY

HUNDREDS ADMIRE THE MANY EXHIBITS

Car Dealers and Merchants Have Both Planned Generously—Visitors Find Show a Credit to the City.

It will not be possible in this article to mention the various exhibits at the Jacksonville automobile show and merchants' exposition. Suffice it to say that visitors to the big show at the Auto Inn yesterday found that it exceeded their expectations. There are nearly 75 cars and trucks on view, in addition to the displays planned and so well executed by various merchants. Money has been spent lavishly and to good effect in the decorations and the spacious display room presented a marvelously attractive appearance last night.

In addition to viewing the cars and exhibits, the visitors had the pleasure of listening to the Dunlap orchestra and a male quartet of talented singers.

The automobile men have arranged for music and vaudeville attractions each night. The show is open afternoons and evenings. The Auto Inn was thronged last night and no doubt that will continue to be the case all thru the week. Don't put off your visit to the exhibit until Saturday for an earlier visit will prove that you cannot see all the attractions in one afternoon or evening.

TOBACCO INSURANCE COMPANIES CHEATED

BUFFALO — (By The A. P.) — The finding of the wrecks of seventeen automobiles at the foot of a cliff on the south shore of Lake Erie, a few miles west of Buffalo, has convinced the police that companies insuring against theft have been systematically cheated, insurance companies, in self defense, are carefully examining candidates for insurance of this kind.

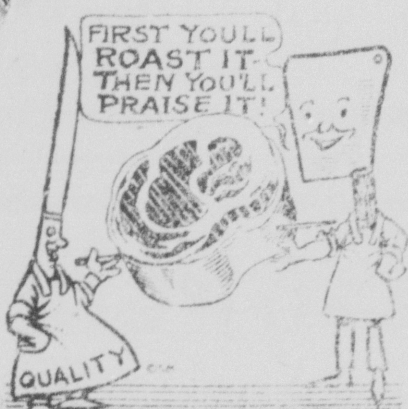

In this lake graveyard of automobiles are makes of many sorts, from the plain runabout up to the pretentious limousine. Marks on the edge of the 85 foot cliff and the condition of the machines indicate that the automobiles were set afire before being sent over.

The theory of the police is that the machines were stolen from their owners, insured against theft under fictitious names, reported stolen so that the insurance could be collected, and then destroyed to prevent detection for theft.

Police records show that in three months, 484 cars were stolen, 41 of which were found burned or destroyed and 108 are still listed as missing.

DELICIOUS BREADS MADE FROM SUBSTITUTE FLOURS

Wheat bread served three times a day is apt to grow tiresome if not varied by bread made from other cereals. The following recipes are recommended by the Home Economics Kitchen of the United States Department of Agriculture:

Brown Bread
3 cups corn meal
1 cup flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups water
1 cup molasses.

Mix the dry ingredients and add the molasses and the water. Pour the mixture into a greased coffee can or steaming tin, steam is for 2 hours, and then bake in a moderate oven for 1 1/2 hour.

Nut Bread
3 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup milk
1 egg
1 cup English walnut or pecan or hickory nut meats, cut into small pieces.

Sift together the flour, the baking powder, the salt, and the sugar, and add the milk, the egg, well beaten, and the nut meats. Place the mixture in a well buttered pan and let rise for 1 hour. Bake for 3/4 hour in a moderate oven.

Rolls Oats and Wheat Bread
1 1/2 cups liquid (milk, water, potato water, or a mixture of these).

3/4 cup freshly mashed potato.
1/2 cups wheat flour.
1/4 cake yeast.
1 tablespoon sugar or corn syrup.

2 teaspoons salt.
1 3/4 cups ground rolled oats.
Make a sponge of all the ingredients except the rolled oats, and let it rise in a warm place until very light. Add the rolled oats, which have been ground fine in the food chopper and measured after grinding. Let the dough rise until it doubles in bulk, then knead and mold it into a loaf, brush with melted fat after it has been placed in a pan, and allow it to double in bulk again. Bake in a hot oven for 1 1/4 hours.

SPIRIT OF SERVICE ALIVE IN CHICAGO

Spirit Which Asserted Itself So Powerfully During the War Not Entirely Lost in Big City—Weekly Luncheon Clubs Flourishing.

CHICAGO, March 7.—That the spirit of service which asserted itself so powerfully during the world war has not been entirely lost, is indicated by the manner in which business and professional men's weekly luncheon clubs have flourished during the past two years.

Reports at the annual council of the Kiwanis club international, held in this city, show the organization to have been extended into over 400 cities in the United States and Canada and there are about 40,000 members, all of whom attend meetings of the weekly luncheon clubs.

Local clubs reported the public activities in which they have engaged in the past year and about 70 different sorts of public service were recounted.

The reports showed that activities included obtaining industrial enterprises for cities, supplying milk for infants of indigent parents, raising funds for the building of hospitals, hotels, orphanages and bridges, painting fire hydrants and procuring extensions of city limits. The reports also showed Kiwanis clubs to have fought radicalism; sponsored Americanization, fought forest fires, provided Boy Scout camps.

The Original All-Record Phonograph Without Attachments

Such is The Brunswick, and part of its fame is due to this innovation. Until the coming of this noted instrument, most Phonograph owners had to be content with a one record instrument. Brunswick made this idea out of date.

There has been many attempts to equal The Brunswick, but devices and attachments never bring the desired result. The Ultona is part of The Brunswick inbuilt, and it plays every record at its best.

Another exclusive feature is The Brunswick Tone Amplifier, built entirely of wood; it has no cast metal throat, as is usual.

This scientific Tone Amplifier, built according to acoustic laws, gives truer, richer tone. It reveals hitherto lost shadings.

Hear The Brunswick before you buy a Phonograph. Note its unequalled tone, its superb cabinet work, its many betterments. You will hardly believe all the good things they say about Brunswick's, until you see for yourself.

Agrowing child needs twice the amount of food an adult needs—and why

EMINENT authorities on nutrition state that a growing child needs twice the amount of food, in proportion to weight, that an adult needs.

For the child not only uses up more energy than a grown person, but he has to have a lot of food to help him grow.

The most important of all energy foods is Dextrose. Every bit of starch and sugar you eat in bread, potatoes or vegetables—has to be changed into Dextrose, before your system can use it as energy food.

This is one reason why Karo, the Great American Syrup, is such a splendid food—especially for growing children. Karo contains a very large percentage of Dextrose, so it is almost a predigested food.

Give your boys and girls plenty of rich nourishing Karo—on cakes or spread on bread. It will make them robust and sturdy.

Your Protection

Do not be deceived by cans containing syrup that might look like Karo. The name "Karo" is on every can of original Karo—look for it, and be assured of full weight cane and highest quality.

TOM MIX IS COMING IN "PRAIRIE TRAILS"

Tom Mix comes to town today and tomorrow at the Grand theatre in "Prairie Trails," the latest Tom Mix picture in which the famous cowboy star again is seen in the role of Tex Benton, the hero of James B. Hendryx's popular western novels. It is said to be the best William Fox production of the season.

Dashing, gallant Tom Mix, more at home on the back of a horse than in a chair, roping champion of many states, sheriff of a western county, crack shot and renowned actor, is well fitted to the part of Tex Benton, hero of "The Texan" and now of "Prairie Trails." Indeed, the filming of this second Hendryx novel is due largely to the great success scored by Mix in the first.

Lovers of romance and outdoor life as well as those who seek hair-raising thrills, may count upon good entertainment when ever Tom Mix is on the bill, and "Prairie Trails" is said to be by long odds his best picture. The director is George Marshall, and the supporting cast includes Kathleen O'Connor, Gloria Hope, Charles K. French and Sid Jordan.

Flow Incessant

The flow thru this system is incessant, but when there is a demand for a different grade of oil, there is injected into the same a hedder, or slug of water perhaps three feet long and this hedder separates the different grades. Then another hedder is injected and following this is the original grade of oil, containing its flow. Frequently a bullet-like "go-devil" is pumped thru the piping in the midst of the flow. The revolving knives at the end of this projectile fit the pipe snugly, cutting from the walls as it proceeds an accumulated sediment which would soon plug the pipe if left alone.

The oil is helped along its course at intervals by secondary pumps.

In some places the pipes are exposed to view, running along railroad right-of-ways, but more frequently they are buried about three feet in the earth to protect them from weather and accident. The lines frequently follow the railroad tracks, because it is simpler to construct a right-of-way with a railroad company than with a score of individual property owners.

It is estimated that the system

OIL PIPE LINES SYSTEM OF COUNTRY ESSENTIAL

Gigantic Labyrinth of Pipelines Daily Doing Work Which Would Require 8,000 Locomotives and 200,000 Oil Tanks a Month to Do.

CHICAGO, March 7.—Winding back and forth in an iron network concealed beneath the oil fields of the United States, a gigantic labyrinth of pipelines 50,000 miles long, daily is doing work that would require 200,000 oil tank cars and 8,000 locomotives fully one month to handle, according to estimates of pipeline transportation experts.

Practically every barrel of oil taken from the nation's 258,000 active wells today is shot thru these pipelines, and in this way reaches the oil refineries and subsequently the oil markets, weeks and sometimes months sooner than if shipped by railroads.

The rapid movement thru the pipes, compared with rail transportation, is due to the fact that the flow thru the underground system is not stopped at any point until it reaches its destination in the refiners' tanks, whereas the tank car, attached to the freight train, must wait for block signals, must change crews at division points, and finally at its destination, must await its turn in the disembarking of the train.

Consequently the oil pipelines system of the country has now come to be regarded as an essential to the ever-increasing rates of oil production as the well driller himself.

History of Pipeline

The history of pipeline transportation goes back to Civil War days and has its setting in the pioneer oil fields of Pennsylvania, when production began to outstrip transportation facilities.

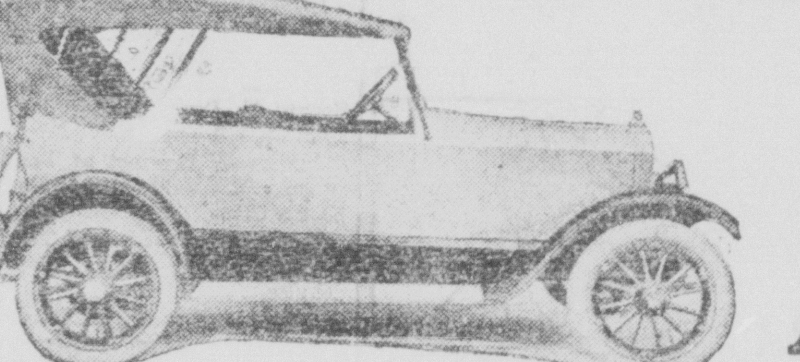

This gave birth to the first pipeline system. In 1861, Hemah James, of Erie, Pa., conceived a four-inch wooden pipeline from the Tarr farm to Oil City, Pa., but never carried it out. Then, in 1862, a bill to aid pipeline construction was introduced in the Pennsylvania legislature, but it was beaten by a teamsters' lobby.

In 1862, J. L. Hutchings, a New Jersey operator, constructed a two-inch line from the Tarr farm to Humboldt, Pa. But the teamsters destroyed the line, tearing up huge strips of it. He tried again, in 1863, but again the line was destroyed.

But in 1865, with the aid of state police, Henry Harley successfully resisted the teamsters and operated the first successful line of two-inch piping, handling from six to eight barrels a day from Benninghoff to Shaffer, Pa. Then the network of lines that still operate today in Pennsylvania spread with such speed that soon the supply of lines exceeded the demand. Several lines, as a result, operated at a loss for years.

The new Southern field in Oklahoma and contiguous states were equipped almost from the start with the new oil transporting system.

The Southern field is now a veritable labyrinth of lines, trunk systems extending north to Illinois refineries and southward to the Gulf coast stations. The fields proper are honeycombed with the smaller, feeder pipes, connecting and feeding the trunk systems. A new well usually means a new pipeline.

LIGHTHOUSE SERVICE

IN EXHAUSTIVE TESTS

Washington—By the A. P.—When the blind gray fog rolls down over the entrance to Chesapeake Bay and sad voiced fog-horns bellow "ware shoal," a stubby government craft plows out into the thick of it to plot a new course to safety for those who come from the sea in ships.

Aboard the tender, as the shouting of the foghorns grows vague in her wake and blurred in the baffling folds of the mist, men of the lighthouse service lean above the great dial of a new radio compass. Out of the air, minute by minute as the distant horns wail, impulses come from three points to set the direction needle wavering to point the way first toward one and then another danger far ahead. And from the readings of the compass, a course is laid back into harbor in defiance of the and its perils. The tests are being made by the lighthouse service in co-operation with the bureau of standards and have to do with learning the efficiency of devices for projecting automatic radio signals from fog stations to supplement the mournful hooting of the horns. Eventually every light house and lightship may thus hurl its warning out far beyond the range of sight to hearing for conservative government reports say the experiments "give excellent promise of the success of this probably greatest advance in fog-signal engineering."

Drug Store Complexions

A good complexion is not a matter of putting something on the face, but of putting the blood and the feminine organs in healthy condition. No woman can have a fair skin if her health is undermined with drains, pains and nervousness. More real complexions have been secured by using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription than by all paints and powders combined. It makes sick women well, and well women are always fair to look upon. Remember that the latest fashion is a natural complexion. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce, Invalid's Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for package Favorite Prescription Tablets.—Adv.

Daily Market Report

FOREIGN SITUATION

AFFECTS MARKETS

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, March 7.—Chances that German import of grain from the United States thru Holland and other countries might be brought to a halt had a bearish effect today on the wheat market and as too did rains in the domestic wheat belt. The close was heavy 2 1/2 to 3 1/2c net lower with March $1.67 1/2 to $1.67 3/4 and May $1.59 to $1.59 1/4; corn lost 1/4 to 1/2c, and oats 1/2 to 3/4c. In provisions, the outcome varied from 10c decline to five cent advance. Until today renewal of clashing between Germany and the Allies had been generally construed as a bullish factor in the wheat pit, but announcement that military measures would be taken tomorrow failed to cause any fresh advance in prices. On the contrary, attention became directed toward the view that if from no other cause than final disturbance the German break with the allies would tend to restrict the movement of supplies from the United States into Germany. Much selling pressure here followed and that market declined sharply at the last. Corn and oats went down grade with wheat despite sales of 400,000 bushels of corn to the seaboard.

Lower quotations on hogs made provisions decline but estimates that hog arrivals tomorrow would be light led to something of a rally.

HEAVY SELLING

ON STOCK EXCHANGE

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 7.—During the first half of today's stock market session technical considerations prompted extensive covering by shorts, but this condition was sharply reversed later when cables from London indicated a rupture in the indemnity negotiations.

Heavy selling occurred in the last hour, cancelling previous gains of 1 to 3 points and effecting many losses of like extent. Liquidation for both accounts became urgent on news that the allied forces had received orders to invade German territory.

Early features of comparative strength embraced oils, shipplings, steels, equipments, leathers, tobaccos and coppers, as well as a number of obscure specialties.

Sales amounted to 485,000 shares.

Call money was in free supply at seven per cent, but time accommodations diminished.

Most international bonds held steady to firm in the face of the disquieting foreign news, but domestic rails and industrials eased with the stock market. Liberty bonds, the 3 1/2s again, excepted, were moderately better. Total sales (par value) $9,875,000.

SOUTH DAKOTA MEETS SHORTAGE IN HOUSES

Bill Which Becomes a Law on July 1 Creates Home Building Department of State — Will Loan Money to Individuals for Home Building.

Pierre, S. D.—South Dakota, thru a bill enacted by the legislature, steps to the fore in meeting the house shortage in that state, by loaning to the individual, the finances necessary for the construction of a home.

The bill which becomes a law on July 1, creates a separate department. This new department within the already established rural credits department. This new department is authorized to sell bonds of the state, the proceeds of which will be loaned at a rate of interest not exceeding one and one-tenth per cent above the rate paid on the bonds.

The individual must own the lot upon which the home is to be built and must furnish in cash, 20 per cent of the building cost. The state furnishes the other 80 per cent but places a limit on the amount loaned to one individual at $4,000.

Each loan will be secured by a first mortgage on the property. The mortgagee must agree to pay all taxes and to insure the building for the benefit of the state against loss by fire, lightning or tornado in the amount equal to that due on the mortgage.

Loans shall be payable in not more than 12 years, in 144 equal monthly installments about equal to the average rental, each payment caring for the interest and reducing the principle.

To secure a loan, application must first be made to the authorities of the municipality in which the home is to be built, who will investigate necessity of its construction, the character and ability of the borrower to meet the payments and report the results to the home building department. The department will, if the report is satisfactory, carry on another investigation, covering the same ground. If the loan is considered a safe and necessary one, the intended borrower will be notified to make his formal application.

In every case the municipality in which the home is built is held responsible to the state for the unpaid portion of the loan in cases of default by the builder.

WEEKLY AMERICAN LEGION NEWS LETTER

Proof that disabled veterans appreciate the efforts of the American Legion in their behalf is provided by statistics showing that of the number of ex-servicemen confined in hospitals of thirty states, one-third are Legion members. The figures were obtained from a report of the Service Division of National Headquarters, based on a Legion national census.

The week ending February 26 was one of the most successful in the history of the American Legion and Women's Auxiliary of that organization from the standpoint of new posts and units.

Eighty-two posts of the Legion and seventy-three units of the Women's Auxiliary were added. Applications for thirty-two charters for the Auxiliary were received in one day. There are now 10,200 post and 2,150 units, according to national headquarters.

Alvin W. Owsley, of Austin, Tex., who was a pioneer in American Legion organization in the southwest, has been appointed assistant director of the Legion's Americanism Commission. Mr. Owsley is a speaker of national prominence and acquired special recognition among ex-servicemen for his efforts in obtaining the passage of a bill in the Texas legislature providing a million and a half dollars for a hospital at Kerrville, Tex.

When the employment bureau of the American Legion in St. Paul enrolled four hundred ex-servicemen out of jobs, O. W. Krause, secretary of the bureau, appealed to the public of St. Paul thru the local newspapers. As a result, more than one hundred men found employment in one day.

A plan by which thousands of members of the American Legion might be given a free course in government is proposed by Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, an American Legion member. Mr. Fish suggests that each member of the house and senate bring a Legionnaire to Washington for three months as one of the secretaries permitted him in his office and replace him at the end of the period with another and so on. Mr. Fish has already started a relay of New York Legion members in his office.

An appeal has been made to National headquarters of the American Legion by officers of the American and French Children's League to aid the League in its distribution of several millions of poppies, which the women of France have made to be worn on Memorial Day. The poppies will be sold in all parts of the United States and the proceeds will be used for French and American war orphans.

The fact that a veteran who goes into trouble with the law is an ex-serviceman will not be emphasized by the Associated Press, according to orders issued to its superintendents and correspondents. The American Legion at its second annual convention passed a resolution urging the press to adopt a similar policy.

American Legion members were chosen for office at two California special elections in one week. Walter L. Linberger, past commander of Long Beach Post No. 27, was elected to congress and Walter C. Smith, of Golden Gate Post, No. 40, to the state legislature. Two Legion men now represent California in congress and fifteen ex-servicemen have seats in the state legislature.

Enlisting new members is not difficult for Medford Post No. 37 of the American Legion, which received a prize flag as the most efficient Oklahoma post in a state membership campaign. With a membership of fifteen last September, the post obtained renewals from every member, and added fifty-four names to its rolls. Wilken Green, Post No. 190, of Gotebo, would have received the prize, had its report been made on time. The Gotebo post renewed its fourteen members and gained seventy-six recruits.

Every American Legion post in Kings County, N. Y., which shelters more than one thousand disabled veterans of the World War. The Legion members have established a regular schedule of visits, entertainments and gift parties as well as a system of assistance in obtaining compensation and other rights of their comrades.

Billy Marvin, an ex-serviceman, of Mulberry, Kans., found real help in the Fred Hutchison Post of the American Legion at Mulberry and the Ben Fuller Post, of Pittsburg, Kans. While a member of the 106th Infantry, Marvin suffered disability which necessitated his removal to Arizona. The Mulberry post staged a benefit dance, the entire proceeds being given to Marvin, and the Ben Fuller post also aided him financially.

A meeting of Aarvig-Campbell Post No. 78, of Pontiac, Ill., was the scene of the presentation of the Distinguished Service Cross to Sergeant Isadore Solomon, of that city, who was cited for extraordinary heroism in recovering an airplane message in front of the line near Sommanthe, France, November 4, 1918, in the face of heavy machine gun fire.

VEGETABLE OILS FOR FIGHT AGAINST LEPROSY

Washington — By the A. P.—Propagation of plants for production of vegetable oils used in the fight against leprosy has been undertaken by the Department of Agriculture. Seeds of the Hydnocarpus anthelmintica tree, forwarded from Bangkok, Siam, by Dr. J. P. Rock of the University of Hawaii will be sent to Florida, Porto Rico and Hawaii for the purpose.

Recent progress in the anti-leprosy crusade thru use of chaulmooga oil, obtained from a tree grown in Burma, prompted the new effort. Experts of the department, working since 1904 have succeeded in reducing a similar oil from seeds of three other trees including the variety received from Bangkok and hope to supply the doctors with an additional weapon in their fight against the disease.

RAID SOCIALIST MEETING IN JAPAN

Tokio — (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—It is reported that while some 200 socialists were holding an ostensible new year social gathering at a club, about 50 members of a gambling association and others armed with wooden swords and other weapons came on the scene in motor-cars, broke into the room where the socialists were gathered, and assaulted them, shouting, "Down with the traitors!"

A number of socialist were hurt. Many well-known socialist leaders were present. The socialists allege that police who were present at the time of the breaking up of their gathering did nothing to prevent the disturbance.

SOCIAL SERVICE NOTES

A meeting of the case committee of the Social Service League was held Monday afternoon at the league rooms.

There was a very good attendance and some matters of civic importance were discussed, which will be taken up later.

There was a generous response to the appeal which the league made several days ago for a pair of crutches. The need has been supplied now, thanks to the generosity of a Jacksonville citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beckman moved out to their country home, near Franklin, last week. They spent the winter months in Jacksonville.

John Carlson was a business caller from Murrayville yesterday. Dr. William O'Riley, of Winchester, called in the city Monday.

Mrs. James Eddings, of Winchester, was in the city for a week end visit with her daughter, Abigail Eddings, who is a nurse at Our Savior's Hospital.

ARKANSAS HAS LARGE BAUXITE DEPOSIT

Basic Ore From Which Aluminum is Mined Extensively in Parts of Arkansas — State Produces 75 Per Cent of Entire World Output.

Bauxite, Ark.—Bauxite, the basic ore from which aluminum is obtained was discovered in Arkansas in 1891 by Dr. J. C. Branner, president Emeritus of Leland Stanford University, and at that time state geologist of Arkansas, but it was not until several years later that mining of this ore on any extensive scale was begun. Since 1910 Arkansas has furnished 80 per cent of the bauxite mined in the United States and since 1915 has produced 90 per cent of the country's supply. For several years the bauxite mined in the state has represented 75 per cent of the world production of the ore.

All the bauxite is mined from open pits, the overburden, or upper strata of earth and rock being removed principally by steam shovel. The stratum of bauxite lies at depths below the surface varying from fifteen to 175 feet, and seldom follows the contours of the surface. Because of these conditions it often is necessary to cut down a hill 175 feet high, and take the earth to some point from which the ore has been removed or where there is no underlying stratum of ore.

The operations preliminary to the actual mining of the bauxite, however, take into consideration, the drainage as well as the question of road beds for the mine railways and the economic removal of the ore from pit to mill. Consequently the entire topography as changed by the mining operations, at all stages of the removal of the ore from the present to the time many years hence when the section will be stripped, has been determined in advance, and contour maps show just where the hills will stand twenty years from now; where the valleys and level ground will be, and where streams now flowing thru one section will be diverted to maintain the general scheme of drainage.

Conservation of other resources of the land also is practiced, and before operations on any portion of the land are begun, portable sawmills are set up, the timber is cut, and sawed into lumber for use in building operations.

The depth of the bauxite, the thickness of the layer of ore, and its merchantable value as ascertained by analysis, has been determined by drilling. The maximum thickness of the bauxite stratum is thirty-five feet but the average is only slightly more than eleven feet.

After the overburden has been removed the ore is taken out by steam shovel or with pick and shovel according to its location and hardness. The appearance of the ore would never suggest aluminum to the average person, and the most of it looks like yellow aluminum to the average person, and the most of it looks like yellow clay. The color however, varies, some of it being almost white, some red and some it gray. In hardness it varies from texture of well cemented limestone, which must be blasted, to that of soft clay.

U. OF I. TO BUILD BIG AMPHITHEATRE

Harlan Williamson was in Champaign last week attending meeting of the U. of I. Alumni Association. The meeting was called by G. Huff and Robert Zupke, to consider plans for putting over the building of a large stadium at the University.

The stadium, which is planned to build, will have a seating capacity of 76,000. It will contain all kinds of recreation fields, artificial ice, skating rinks and other athletic equipment, which will make it, when completed, one of the best amphitheatres in the country.

This was the first meeting that has been held, and the organization was started for the plans. The work to promote the plan is to be taken up by counties in the different states.

The campaign among the students for funds is to be put on this spring. Owing to depressed business conditions, however, the alumni campaign will not be launched until next fall.

The Morgan county committee for this project consists of Chester Hemphill and Harlan Williamson, of Jacksonville, and Wilson M. Smith, of Waverly.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't irritate the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dizziness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain, "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 30c

LIQUID HAS WONDERFUL SOLVENT QUALITIES

New Properties of Selenium-Oxychloride Described by Professor of Chemistry at University of Wisconsin.

LINCOLN, Neb.—(By The Associated Press.)—New properties of a liquid described before the students of the Department of Chemistry of the University of Nebraska show that it almost realizes the dream of the alchemists of old who sought the "Universal Solvent."

As described by Dr. Victor Lenher, Professor of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, who has come here to deliver a series of addresses on the subject, further tests have shown that selenium oxy chloride, as the solvent is called, is more powerful even than was indicated in his preliminary announcement made before the American Chemical Society.

It dissolves rubber, glues, enamels, hydrocarbons and many other substances which hitherto have been regarded as most resistant to all chemical agencies except fire.

Such products as redwood, bakelite and condensite, which are used as substitutes for amber in the making of tobacco pipes and for many other industrial purposes and have been until now regarded as insoluble in all known solvents, are readily dissolved by selenium oxy chloride, according to the announcement of Dr. Lenher. By ordinary paints, varnishes and shellacs can be removed from furniture and carriages and other objects without injuring the wood, and enamels can be taken from automobiles without affecting the steel body.

"Its solvent powers are so vigorous," said Dr. Lenher, "that it will remove the bitumen from soft coal but will not attack the pure carbon of anthracite."

Dr. Lenher also sees a military power in this powerful solvent, as it can be employed in making more porous charcoals contained in the filter material of war gas masks, a process known as activation.

"The coconut charcoal used in the gas mask," continued Dr. Lenher, "can be activated by this new reagent by treatment at ordinary temperatures, which is a considerable advance over the older steam activation at a white heat."

The use of activated charcoal in the extraction of gasoline from natural gas is one which is interesting chemists today, as it will tend to increase the supply of fuel for motor vehicles, and still leaves the gas available for household and industrial purposes. As a laboratory reagent, Dr. Lenher said that the properties of selenium oxy-chloride are so unusual that it is likely to come into common use wherever research is conducted.

The solvent, which was formerly regarded as merely a laboratory curiosity, is finding its place in many industries. The original statements concerning its exceptional powers have been amply verified, the speaker asserted, by him and a group of students who have been attracted to the laboratories of the University of Wisconsin during the past year.

The new material from which it is obtained was once a waste product from the electrolytic refining of copper for until recently the selenium from these electrolytic slimes, while known to the chemist as a rare element, had been considered as almost valueless. The solvent itself is a heavy liquid and nearly colorless. It can be readily handled in a commercial way, however, for were it the "Universal Solvent" of alchemy it could not be transported, as no vessel could withstand it.

This discovery of everyday uses for a substance formerly considered discarded material is regarded by scientists as a typical illustration of the value of research.

Charm of Motherhood

THERE are many homes once childless that now are blessed with healthy, happy children, because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored the mother to a healthy, normal physical condition.

The following letters give the experience of two young women and prove the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases.

Chicago, Ill.—"I was always tired, my head always ached, and my back ached until I could hardly stand the pain. I doctored for years, and the doctor said nothing but an operation would help me, and that I could not have children. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles of it and it helped me wonderfully, and I now have a fine baby boy, thanks to what your medicine did for me in restoring my health. I can highly recommend the Compound to all women who suffer from female ills."—Mrs. Wm. Reiss, 304 Willow St., Chicago, Ill.

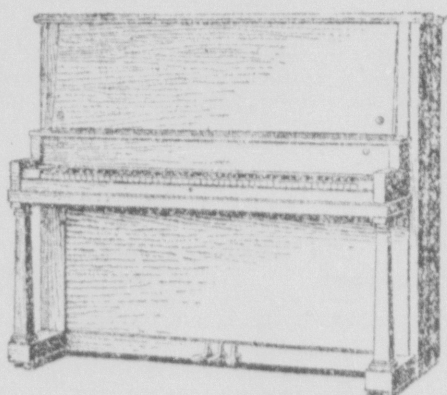

Marinette, Wis.—"I was in a very nervous condition, was irregular, and could not have any children. I took doctor's medicine without success, and he advised an operation. My husband brought me one of your booklets and asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon felt benefited by its use, became regular, and now we have a fine baby girl after having been married nine years. I am always glad to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my friends who suffer from such troubles."—Mrs. H. B. Hearn, 359 Jefferson St., Marinette, Wis.
